

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Hollisterville, Jan. 30. Charles Brown is nursing a fractured leg, caused by the butt end of a tree falling on it.

Herbert Reichert, who is employed in Berwick, is home nursing a felon on his right hand fore finger.

Mrs. Edith Potter transacted business in Scranton a few days last week.

Ross Slocum spent a day in Scranton last week.

The Colored Concert Co. of the Colored M. E. church of Scranton will give a concert in the Methodist Protestant church here on Saturday evening, Feb. 1, at 7:30.

Rev. A. R. Reichert will have regular services in the M. P. church on Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject of sermon, "The Christian Life."

STEENE.

Steen, Jan. 30. Milton Hogan camp was very badly bruised about the back and arms trying to stop a forty-horse power engine at the knitting mill at Waymart Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. William Wright returned to her home at Carbondale Monday after visiting a week with her parents, the Bobolink and mate.

The taxpayers are kicking against furnishing a janitor for our small country school.

Louis Rollinson left Monday morning for the State Hospital at Scranton where he will get under an operation to have a large tumor removed from his neck.

It is rumored that the D. & H. company is contemplating erecting a washery some time in the near future between Honesdale and Waymart for the purpose of cleaning up the coal and culm dumps along the line of the old gravity.

William Wright and family, of Carbondale, spent Sunday with friends at Steene.

Two of our old residents at Prompton got into a dispute a few days ago over the right of way of a sluice or water ditch, where one with a shovel and the other with his fists commenced to hold the right of way.

Merchant Sneider is being convinced that he will have to hire a careful teamster to deliver goods as the roads are rough and he hasn't patience to drive slow, hence he loses more than his profit.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—Our Butcher. It is rumored that he has gone on his wedding trip.

MILANVILLE.

Milanville, Jan. 30. Miss Frederika Hocker has been unable to have school the past week on account of a bad case of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Leslie Dexter entertained her young friends on Thursday evening last, the occasion being her birthday.

Mrs. Helen Skinner celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Sunday last.

Mrs. Wells, of Elkdale, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Adelia Nichols.

Thomas Dexter recently purchased a piece of land of Earl Barnes.

Mrs. and Mrs. Archie Taylor are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter.

Mrs. Caroline Reynolds, of Olyphant, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. H. M. Page will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church for dinner the first Thursday in February at the basement of the church, Damascus.

Miss Ida Coots, of Cochection, had the honor to be one of the guests at the Gould-Shepard wedding on Wednesday last week.

RUTLEDGEDALE.

Rutledgedale, Jan. 30. Miss Anna Doherty, teacher of Keesler school, was called to Scranton by the serious illness of her brother, Raymond, on Saturday last.

been ill for some time, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rutledge spent Sunday in Callicoon.

Thos. Gregg and Francis Keesler spent the week-end with the former's sister, Mrs. Otis Olsen, of Fosterdale, N. Y.

A large crowd surprised Charles Rutledge on Saturday evening, the occasion being the 64th birthday.

Edward Hadsall recently visited friends in Scranton.

Thiden Rutledge presented his wife with a fine Munn piano recently.

LAKEVILLE.

Lakeville, Jan. 30. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cross passed Sunday last with the latter's parents, Lafayette James and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheeley and daughter Beatrice, are spending a time with W. D. Sheeley and wife here.

Joseph Richter, Jr., on Friday last in some unknown way, badly lacerated his leg. Dr. White, of Ariel, was called and a number of stitches were required to close the wound.

Mrs. Jacob Slezzer, one of our oldest neighbors, is very seriously ill with pneumonia with very little hopes of recovery.

The new saw mill at Lake James, or formerly known as Long Pond, is under good headway. Will be in operation by February 1.

A. C. James and family returned home to Lake James after making a brief visit in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Sarah Pennell, also Mr. and Mrs. John Jordans have been indisposed but are now able to be about the house.

Norman Bishop, Jr., and wife of Honesdale have moved their household goods to Lakeville.

Mrs. Stephen Treat is entertaining her aged father for a few days.

Miss Rose Miller is home from Hawley High school on account of her eyes. We hope she will soon recover.

Miss Julia Welsh returned on Monday last after spending a time in her home town, Scranton.

Mrs. Peter Daniels recently passed a time with her children at Wilsonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Locklin are entertaining Mrs. L., sister Miss Helen Walker of Hollisterville, Pa.

Miss Hazel D. James is visiting friends and relatives in White Mills, Honesdale and Siko.

Miss Helen Kellam of this place, returned home Monday last after spending a fortnight with friends and relatives in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre.

William Brooks, in some unaccountable way, while chopping logs in the woods near his home, fell on his axe causing a large deep cut on his right leg just below the knee which has confined him to his home for the past three weeks.

Rev. Stephen Treat of this place, who has been holding revival meetings in this place, closed the meetings Saturday evening with a goodly number of converts.

The Ladies' Aid of Arlington met with Rev. and Mrs. Treat on Thursday last at Lakeville. There was a goodly number out. All enjoyed a social time.

I. O. F. Lodge of Lakeville are planning for an oyster supper to be held in their hall some time next month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Everly entertained as guests on Sunday last Mrs. Sarah Pennell and Mr. and Mrs. C. Reineke of Uswick.

The Lakeville Grange, No. 1447, met Wednesday night last and nominated the following officers for the coming term: Worthy Master, Chas. Daniels; overseer, Mrs. Minnie Brooks; chaplain, Wm. Alpha; lecturer, E. Daniels; secretary and treasurer, Lester M. Carlton; steward, William Brooks; lady assistant steward, Della Goble; gate keeper, Spencer Swingle; pomona, Beulah Swingle; flora, Grace Bidwell; ceres, Cora Bidwell.

We are sorry to note the illness of our kind neighbor, Mrs. Ann Utt, whose health has been rapidly failing since the death of her son, C. P. Utt, who passed away some two months ago. Mrs. Utt is now confined to her bed in a very weak condition.

CENTERVILLE.

Centerville, Jan. 30. The Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Friend Simons of Ledge-dale on Wednesday, January 22.

Those from this place who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. Samuel Kimble, Mary Lane, Jennie Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waller. All report a very pleasant time. Proceeds were $6, to be used for the benefit of the M. E. church.

John Kimble, who has been home for the past few days on account of illness, returned to Scranton on Thursday.

William Laird and Miss Anna Garity made a business trip to Greentown on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Peet of Hamlin, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, J. F. Walker and wife.

INGLEHART.

Inglehart, Jan. 30. Mrs. Frank Branning and daughter, Corrol, called on Mrs. R. Buddenhagen at Welcome Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse Decker went to visit her brother and family at Hancock for a few days.

B. Branning, of Atco, was assisting F. W. Branning in putting on a new galvanized roofing on his corn house. The old roof was nearly torn off by the heavy winds.

Mrs. S. B. Case, of Welcome Lake, called on Mrs. J. H. Branning and family Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Brinkman went to visit her son and family at Middletown for a few days, who are rejoicing over a young son.

home of the former, Charles Brinkman.

M. Dexter and wife spent Sunday at this place with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Whitmore.

Miss Mabel Branning spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. B. Branning of Atco.

A small crowd of ladies and men gathered at the home of Mrs. E. Decker Friday afternoon in honor of her birthday.

Miss A. E. Branning went to Narrowsburg to work for Mrs. N. Rasmussen last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Branning has been on the sick list for the past week. She is improving slowly.

PLEASANT MOUNT.

Pleasant Mount, Jan. 29. The Bell Telephone company has about completed their line from Carbondale and we will be able to use that service by Saturday.

W. R. Clements, of Binghamton, was a caller in town this week.

I. W. Monahan, was a business caller in Honesdale on Tuesday.

Sadie O'Hare is visiting with friends in Carbondale.

Fred Kellam is back again. He now represents Shrimpton's Candy House, of Binghamton.

F. W. Stahlheber, representative of the Bell Telephone company, is in town.

Miss Aloise O'Neill of Carbondale, is visiting at M. L. O'Hara's.

A box social and dance was held last Thursday evening for the benefit of the Pleasant Mount baseball team. A large crowd turned out to help raise sufficient funds for the team next season.

Thomas McKeon of Scranton was in town on business recently.

ROCK LAKE.

Rock Lake, Jan. 30. N. E. Biglow, of Niagara, was a business caller in this place Monday.

Patrick J. Flanagan, of Lansing, Mich., circulated among friends here recently.

The basket social held in the hall January 21 was quite well attended and a sum of $50 was realized.

Mrs. Patrick McNulty, of Forest City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret McVey of this place.

Mrs. P. E. O'Neill is gaining from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Rebecca Fitzsimmons returned home last week after completing her term of school at Tallmanville.

Benedict Connor, daughter Ann Dillon, of Chicago, and son, Frederick, a student of Emmetsburg, Md., are guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Connor.

Miss Julia Connor of Scranton, spent Sunday at her home here.

Misses Regina and Marguerite O'Neill of Pleasant Mount, were pleasant callers in this place Friday.

The funeral of Terrence Caffery, which was held from St. Julian's church, Monday, Jan. 20th, was largely attended. Burial was made in the Rock Lake cemetery. His daughter and five sons, also two brothers of Buffalo were here.

SOUTH CANAAN.

South Canaan, Jan. 29. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bronson Jan. 21, a son.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Jaggers, Jan. 24, a daughter.

Genevieve Kennedy is spending a few weeks at Carbondale with her sister, Mrs. Fred Lang.

Mrs. Eugene Swingle and Mrs. Albert Jenkins are spending a week at Shickshinny with Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Hooper.

The funeral of Elmer Enslin took place Thursday at 11 o'clock at Varden church with interment in the East cemetery. He is survived by his wife, at Varden, one son, Joseph of Treslarville, one daughter, Mrs. Ed. Pugh, also of Treslarville.

The following brothers and sisters, Simon of Scranton, John of South Canaan, Frank of Carbondale, Mrs. Orpha Setul, of Shickshinny, Mrs. Chas. Webster, of Peckville.

Albert Jenkins is reported on the sick list.

Miss Jane Day is caring for Mrs. John Jaggers.

Will Congdon, who has been in the west for the past three years, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Congdon, at this place.

Mrs. Charles Baker, who has had the pleuro-pneumonia, is convalescent.

Notus Swingle is visiting friends at this place.

Russel Bone, who has been suffering from a broken leg, is able to sit up.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

Indian Orchard, Jan. 30. All who attended Indian Orchard Grange on Saturday evening last were greatly delighted on entering their hall to find out that Brother Saunders had visited the room a few days previous and artistically decorated the same.

In the rear of the stage was hanging a beautiful and costly banner upon which was letters in gold, "Indian Orchard Grange No. 1920, Organized March 13, 1891," and the words "Faith, Hope, Charity with Fidelity." This was presented to the order by S. Saunders and H. H. Bunnell, the former making the presentation speech at the close of which Halsey Wells took the floor in behalf of the Grange and made a fine talk, after which Brothers Saunders and Bunnell were given a vote of thanks by the members.

Past Master W. H. Marshall, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Buckingham and H. D. Wood, installed the officers for the ensuing year. Each officer when escorted to his or her station, when called upon by the grange responded in an encouraging manner, all being interested in its future progress.

Bro. Karslake brought a load of grangers from Pleasant Valley Grange, the former gave an instructive talk on "Fertilizers." He was followed by Bro. Wells, who thought we should learn what the land needed before applying. After closing one of the most interesting and instructive meetings held at this place, Sisters Wells, Downing, Buckingham and Marshall served the grangers with oysters, sandwiches, coffee, etc.

On Sunday last the services at Christ church were well attended. Among those from a distance we noticed Mr. Vicinus from Hawley.

At the close of the services Mr. Saunders made a financial report, stating that they had met all expenses during the quarter of lighting, fuel, janitor and Rector's salary from collections and there still remained a surplus in the treasury. He thanked the good people in behalf of the Vestry for their liberality.

Jesse Ham has purchased an automobile of Emerson Gammell of Honesdale.

Harry Spry and Neal Marshall made a business trip to White Mills recently.

Edward Gillispie, of Laurella, was assisting J. W. Spry last week.

W. E. Avery, H. H. Bunnell and W. D. Buckingham have been chosen as committee to look after the erection of a shed at Christ church. They have decided to erect a building 20x63. The lumber has been bargained for. Judson Case of Welcome Lake, will furnish the rough lumber.

H. H. Bunnell was a business caller at Welcome Lake on Tuesday last.

A letter from Mrs. W. H. Hudson of Texas, says that they are having considerable rain, that the high cost of living is one of the greatest hindrances they have to contend with.

R. B. Marshall, of Beachlake, was doing business at John Spry's on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reining, of Beachlake, were calling on relatives here on Sunday.

Mrs. Frances Garrett, of Beachlake, who has been spending two weeks with relatives and friends here has returned to her home.

Elery Crosby and family, of Beachlake, were the guests of the former's brother, H. H. Crosby, on Sunday.

Fred Avery and family of Beach Grove, were the guests of E. E. Avery and wife of the Bethel Fruit farm recently.

Joseph G. Schmidt and family attended the box social held at John Troop's at Troop's Corners on Friday evening last.

Notwithstanding the severe storm of Thursday last, twelve attended the guild held at Mrs. Mae Richmond's where all had an enjoyable as well as profitable time.

Hollenbeck's teams are hauling some extra long telegraph poles from the Garrett lumber lot.

STALKER AND BRAMAN.

Stalker and Braman, Jan. 29. We are still having very mild and strange winter weather.

Henry Thomas and little daughter, Marjorie, made a visit to Deposit, recently.

Mrs. Grant Caffery and Mrs. Henry Adams were at Hancock last Wednesday.

Edna Rauner spent last week with her brother, Frank, at Susquehanna.

Frank Lawson made a trip to Callicoon last Wednesday.

Karl Jörn, of Berlin, and tenor of the Metropolitan opera company of New York, was at his country home at Braman Jan. 19 and 20.

Emma and Mrs. D. M. Stalker visited Mrs. F. Boundish at Hankins last Wednesday afternoon.

January 23d was the occasion of a surprise birthday party at Mrs. D. M. Stalker's, it being her birthday, also the birthday of her little grandson, Arnold. There were about twenty present. A supper had been prepared by Mrs. R. J. Stalker. Afterwards the evening was spent in music, singing and games. About 11 o'clock supper was served and all friends left about 1 o'clock with all good wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Henry Adams is seriously ill at Equinunk, having gone there to consult a physician. She was unable to return home.

Mrs. Henry Thomas has a can of fruit put up by her husband's mother twenty-seven years ago and says it looks fresh as the day it was put up and looks as though it was keeping nicely.

Mr. S. S. of New York, who owns a farm in Pennsylvania, opposite Hankins, has built over and enlarged his house and built a large hall, preparing to keep city boarders.

EQUINUNK.

Equinunk, Jan. 29. The Shadow social held in the Sunday school room Wednesday evening was well attended.

Rev. S. Tolley is ill at his home here.

Blanche Frisbie is attending school in Hancock.

J. E. Watson, who is spending a three weeks' vacation at his home here, is visiting relatives and friends at Cortland, N. Y.

A young son arrived at the home of Shepard Warfield and wife on January 13th.

Hazel Warfield, of Honesdale, is spending two weeks with her parents, Fred Warfield and wife.

Mrs. C. E. Woodmansee spent Thursday in Callicoon.

Mrs. Anna Hodge has returned home after spending the past three months with her daughter, Mrs. Franks in Deposit.

LAKE COMO.

Lake Como, Jan. 30. The fourth quarterly conference of the Lake Como charge will be held at Lake Como on Feb. 8 at 11 a. m. The Rev. Dr. Murdock will preside. All officials will please present their reports.

Special revival services will begin at Lakewood Methodist church on Sunday evening, February 2.

J. F. Jaycox was a business caller in Hancock Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid society held its monthly business meeting in their hall and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Fred Woodmansee; vice-president, Mrs. Sarah Decker; secretary, Mrs. John Randall; treasurer, Mrs.

Wm. Johnston. The society will give a Martha Washington supper on the 21st of February.

Grace Lillian, six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cargill of Tallmanville died a few days ago and was buried at Shehawken. Services were held in the M. E. church by the Rev. Wm. S. German, pastor.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. D. C. Kingsbury on Thursday, Jan. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bran attended Mrs. Henry Bran's funeral which was held at Pleasant Mount last Saturday.

Mrs. Katie Jones, who has been sick, is better.

Miss Hattie Kingsbury is visiting friends in Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Randall are spending a few days in Scranton this week.

WHITES VALLEY.

Whites Valley, Jan. 29. Mrs. Albert Fitze is slowly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Miss Anna Fitze and a trained nurse from Carbondale are caring for her.

On account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. W. F. Hunter, the special meetings at the M. E. church were discontinued.

Miss Thelma Horton, of Germyn, N. Y., is the guest of friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mead recently returned from Thompson where they spent several days with the latter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Lewis.

Mrs. S. P. Crossman was called to Aldenville to help care for her little grandson, Nelson Bryant, who has pneumonia.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

It's an old sign, but it has the proper meaning. STOP paying rent. LOOK at our advertisement and properties. LISTEN to sound advice.

Two years hence the properties listed with us will advance very materially in value. If you are of the opinion that properties are high now note the advance in price two years hence.

"THE TIME, THE PLACE, THE GIRL"

made a hit on the stage and also represents three important epochs in life. THE TIME to buy a home is now THE PLACE is Honesdale and in Wayne county THE GIRL(S) are here and they are the finest bevy of damsels, too.

Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company has over $250,000 worth of Wayne county property listed, all of which is first-class. If you are interested inquire about the following Honesdale properties:

- Fourteen-room brick and stone dwelling, located on Main street, is one of the most aristocratic places in Honesdale. Rooms are spacious and spring water is in the house. Garage on premises, beautiful lawn and shade trees.
Two Good Lots—Located on Fair avenue, 15 minutes' walk from Honesdale. Will be sold together or separately. On R. D. route. Fertile ground. Lots have a frontage of about 600 feet and run from Dyberry river. Ideal place for party who desires small farm near town.
Ten-room two story frame dwelling located on Court, west side of street between Eighth and Ninth streets. Modern throughout. Large lot, place for excellent garden. Building in first-class condition.
Double dwelling on East street extension. Nine rooms in each apartment. House well and substantially built. Rents for $34. Would make good investment. Lot 100x175 feet. Room on premises for another building.
Eight-room house, all improvements, located East street extension. All improvements, hard wood floors, good dry cellar, large porch bay windows. Chicken house, capacity 50 birds. Lot 52x125 feet.
Eight-room residence corner of Court and Eleventh streets. House in first-class condition. All modern improvements, located on west side of Court street.
Cash Bakery For Sale Cheap. Place enjoys an excellent trade. Well established lunch rooms in connection with business. Books open to prospective purchaser. One of best paying stands in Honesdale. If sold now, a big bargain awaits hustling young man.
Good Building Lot—Located in Texas No. 4, Green street, within 15 minutes' walk from Honesdale post-office. Ground practically level. Size of lot 60x75 feet. Property commands beautiful view of landscape. Will be sold cheap. Rare bargain.
Any of the above properties can be purchased at reasonable prices. Terms made easy to all purchasers. For prices and further description apply to office of
Buy-U-A-Home Realty Co. Honesdale, Pa. Jadwin Building Both Phones